 CREDIT RECOVERY, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:20-CV-01156-GMN-NJK

AMENDED REQUEST FOR ORDER TO ENTER STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Plaintiff Aaron Feld (“Plaintiff”), and Defendants Navient Solutions, LLC (“NSL”), and Pioneer Credit Recovery, Inc. (“PCR,” together “Defendants”) (jointly, the “Parties”) file this amended request that the Court enter the Stipulated Protective Order below.¹ In support of their request, the Parties state that they have consulted and agreed on the terms therein. The Parties seek entry of this stipulated protective order to protect confidential and proprietary information that may be produced in discovery, and provide guidelines for the Parties to send, receive, and handle such materials, during and after this litigation. As entry of this order will preclude future disputes, it will promote judicial economy.

¹ This amended request is filed pursuant to the Court’s order of October 9, 2020 (Doc. No. 13), which denied the Parties’ initial request due to inadvertent incorrect internal cross-references. Those errors have been corrected, and the request is otherwise the same.

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

The Court, having reviewed the Stipulation for Entry of Protective Order (Stipulation) filed by Plaintiff Aaron Feld (Plaintiff), and Defendants Navient Solutions, LLC (NSL) and Pioneer Credit Recovery, Inc. (PCR) (together, Defendants) in this action, and good cause appearing, hereby APPROVES the Stipulation and ORDERS as follows:

1. “CONFIDENTIAL” Documents, Materials, and Information. This Order shall govern all documents produced or exchanged, all written answers, deposition answers, and other responses to discovery, and all communications of any kind made by Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s attorneys, consultants, agents, and representatives; Defendants, their attorneys, consultants, agents, employees, and representatives. “CONFIDENTIAL” materials shall be the documents or information respectively designated under this Order and any notes, work papers, or other documents respectively containing “CONFIDENTIAL” materials derived from such items. Plaintiff, Defendants, or any third party may identify any documents or information, including but not limited to discovery materials produced by that party, initial disclosures, documents and things, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for production, responses to requests for admission, deposition exhibits, and all or portions of deposition or hearing transcripts, as “CONFIDENTIAL” and designate the documents or information as such by affixing thereto a legend of “CONFIDENTIAL” or by designating through another method set forth in this Order or agreed to by the parties.

Plaintiff, Defendants, or any third party may designate documents or information as “CONFIDENTIAL” to the extent that the party, through counsel, believes “good cause” exists to categorize the material as confidential because the material contains or includes: (1) confidential business information; (2) trade secrets; (3) proprietary business methods or practices; (4) any other competitively sensitive confidential information; (5) personal information, including personal financial information about customers or applicants, third parties, the Parties, or an employee of any party to this lawsuit; (6) information regarding any individual’s banking or lending relationships, including, without limitation, information regarding any individual’s loan or credit

1 history and/or consumer information not otherwise available to the public; and (7) any other
2 categories that are later agreed to in writing by the parties or ordered by the Court.

3 This agreed confidentiality order does not include the amount of any judgment that may be 4 entered in this matter or any settlement amounts agreed to by the parties hereto, as said items will 5 be separately negotiated by the parties at a later date.

6 2. Designation of “CONFIDENTIAL” Material. Documents shall be designated as 7 “CONFIDENTIAL” by stamping them with the word “CONFIDENTIAL” in a manner which will 8 not interfere with their legibility. This designation shall only be used in a reasonable fashion and 9 upon a good faith determination by counsel that a particular document contains non-public
10 information and falls within one of the categories enumerated in Paragraph 1. This designation
11 shall ordinarily be made before or at the same time as the production or disclosure of the material.
12 Because materials described in Paragraph 1 shall be covered by this Order, there shall be no waiver
13 of confidentiality if such materials are inadvertently produced without being stamped 14 “CONFIDENTIAL.” Materials already produced in discovery in this litigation may be designated 15 as “CONFIDENTIAL” upon written notice (without stamping), within fourteen (14) days of the 16 entry of this Order, from the party asserting the confidentiality designation to all counsel of record
17 to whom such documents have been produced by notifying the other party of the identity of the 18 documents or information to be so designated. Any of the parties to this action can remove at any 19 time its designation of “CONFIDENTIAL” from any of the documents or information it has 20 previously so designated.

21 3. Treatment of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information. Unless otherwise ordered by the 22 Court, “CONFIDENTIAL” material, and any quotes, summaries, charts, or notes made therefrom,
23 and any facts or information contained therein or derived therefrom, shall be held in confidence
24 and used by the parties to whom the documents and information are produced solely for the 25 purpose of this case. The parties agree to take reasonable steps to maintain the confidentiality of 26 the documents, information, and testimony relating thereto. During the pendency of this litigation,
27 “CONFIDENTIAL” material, including all copies thereof, shall be retained solely in the custody
28 of the parties’ attorneys and shall not be placed in the possession of or disclosed to any other

1 person, except as set forth in this Order, as otherwise agreed upon by the parties, or upon leave of 2 Court. Each person to whom “CONFIDENTIAL” material is disclosed pursuant to this Order is 3 hereby prohibited from exploiting in any way such documents or information for his, her or its 4 own benefit, or from using such information for any purpose or in any manner not connected with 5 the prosecution or defense of this case.

6 4. “Disclosure.” As used herein, “disclosure” or to “disclose” shall mean to divulge,
7 reveal, describe, summarize, paraphrase, quote, transmit, or otherwise communicate
8 “CONFIDENTIAL” material.

9 5. Permissible Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Material. Except by order of this 10 Court, or otherwise as required by law, material designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” (and any notes 11 or documents that reflect or refer to such documents and information) shall not be disclosed to any 12 person other than:

13 (a) A party hereto;

14 (b) Counsel employed by a party, or an employee of such counsel, to whom it is necessary
15 that the materials be shown or the information known for purposes of this case only;
16 (c) Any employee or agent of a party to whom the “CONFIDENTIAL” materials are 17 shown for the purpose of working directly on or testifying in connection with this 18 litigation at the request of or at the direction of counsel for such party;

19 (d) A person retained to assist in this action, such as an investigator, independent 20 accountant, or other technical expert or consultant, who has signed an 21 acknowledgement in the form of Exhibit A hereto, which signed acknowledgment 22 shall be retained by the party who has retained such person, however, in the event the 23 disclosure includes materials designated by a third party as “CONFIDENTIAL,” the 24 parties shall obtain the written consent of such third party prior to disclosure under 25 this paragraph;

26 (e) This Court (or its employees or agents);

27 (f) Any person(s) designated by the Court in the interest of justice, upon such terms as the 28 Court may deem proper;

(g) Members of the jury at a public trial of this matter, subject to the requirements of Paragraph 10 below; or

(h) A person who is deposed or who testifies at the hearing in this matter who has signed an acknowledgement in the form of Exhibit A hereto, which signed acknowledgment shall be retained by the party who has compelled such person to testify at a deposition or trial. If the witness refuses to sign such form, the party compelling such testimony shall immediately notify opposing counsel and permit them seven (7) days to seek redress with the Court provided, however, in the event the disclosure includes materials designated by a third party as “CONFIDENTIAL,” the parties shall obtain the written consent of such third party prior to disclosure under this paragraph.

6. Review of Own “CONFIDENTIAL” Materials. The restrictions of this Order shall not apply to parties, and their employees, attorneys, experts or other authorized agents, when reviewing their own “CONFIDENTIAL” materials.

7. Deposition Transcripts. Deposition testimony and deposition exhibits containing “CONFIDENTIAL” material shall be covered by this Order. During a deposition taken in this matter, Plaintiff, Defendants, or any third party, on the record, may designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” portions of the deposition testimony or deposition exhibits. Alternatively, Plaintiff, Defendants, or any third party may, by written notice to opposing counsel and the court reporter not later than fourteen (14) business days after receipt of the final deposition transcript, designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” any portions of the deposition testimony or deposition exhibits. Until expiration of the above fourteen (14) day period, all deposition transcripts will be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” material unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties.

8. Objections to “CONFIDENTIAL” Designations. To the extent that any party contests a designation under this Order, such party shall object to such designation in writing not later than fourteen (14) business days after receipt of materials designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” The parties shall first try to resolve the disagreement in good faith on an informal basis, such as the production of redacted copies. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement regarding the designation, then the party objecting to such designation shall file an appropriate motion with the

HOLLEY DRIGGS

1 Court for a ruling that the documents or other information shall not be accorded such status and
 2 treatment. In the event that such a challenge is made, the party asserting the confidentiality
 3 designation shall have the burden of establishing good cause exists to maintain the designation.
 4 Until this Court enters an order changing the designation of such documents or information, such 5 document or information shall continue to be protected as provided by this Order. Should the 6 Court rule in favor of the party objecting to the confidentiality designation, the party asserting the 7 designation shall produce a copy of the document(s) without the "CONFIDENTIAL" designation.

8 9. Disclosing "CONFIDENTIAL" Material. If any party wishes to disclose any 9 "CONFIDENTIAL" material beyond the terms of Paragraphs 4-6 of this Order, that party shall 10 provide all other parties with reasonable notice in writing of the request to disclose the materials, 11 unless otherwise required by law. If the parties cannot resolve their disagreement with respect to 12 the disclosure of any designated information, then a party may petition the Court for a 13 determination of these issues. In the event that such a challenge is made, the party asserting the 14 confidentiality designation shall have the burden of establishing that the designation is proper.
 15 Such "CONFIDENTIAL" material shall remain "CONFIDENTIAL" as stipulated by this Order
 16 until the Court rules on the party's specific petition.

17 10. Pleadings and Other Court Submissions. ~~Each party agrees that when filing with~~ 18 ~~the Court any papers (including, without limitation, affidavits, memoranda, interrogatory answers,~~
 19 ~~or deposition transcripts) that disclose directly or indirectly any "CONFIDENTIAL" material,~~
 20 ~~See order issued filed under seal in accordance with the Court's local rules and requirements~~
 21 ~~concurrently herewith under seal.~~

22 ~~The parties further recognize the possible need to use documents marked~~
 23 ~~"CONFIDENTIAL" during the trial of this matter. However, the parties agree to take reasonable~~
 24 ~~steps to protect the confidentiality of any trial exhibits so designated to include asking the Court~~
 25 ~~to ensure that any such documents referred to or offered into evidence at trial are filed with the~~ 26 ~~Court under seal.~~

27 ~~Nothing in this order shall be construed as automatically permitting a Party to file under~~ 28 ~~seal. The Party seeking leave of Court shall show "compelling reasons" (dispositive motion) or~~

~~“good cause” (non-dispositive motion) for filing under seal. See Kamakana v. City & Cnty of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179-80 (9th Cir. 2006). Additionally, such Party seeking to file under seal shall, within the applicable deadline, file a redacted, unsealed version of any motion, response or reply if such Party is waiting for a ruling from the Court on filing an unredacted, sealed version of the same document.~~

11. Document Retention. After the conclusion of this matter (including the expiration of all appeals), all originals and reproductions of the “CONFIDENTIAL” materials shall be returned to the producing party within thirty (30) days of such conclusion or be destroyed (in which case counsel for the party destroying said documents shall certify in writing to the producing party within thirty (30) days of such conclusion that destruction of the “CONFIDENTIAL” materials has taken place). Insofar as the provisions of this Order restrict the use of the documents produced hereunder, the Order shall continue to be binding throughout and after the conclusion of this case, including all appeals, except as set forth in Paragraph 15.

12. Admissibility. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to limit any party from producing or introducing any document into evidence at public hearing. Subject to the Rules of Evidence, “CONFIDENTIAL” materials and other confidential information may be offered in evidence at trial or any court hearing. Any party may move the court for an Order that the evidence be received in camera or under other conditions to prevent unnecessary disclosure of any “CONFIDENTIAL” material. The Court will then determine whether the proffered evidence should continue to be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” and, if so, what protection, if any, may be afforded to such information at the trial or hearing.

13. Scope of Discovery. Nothing in this Order shall preclude any party from opposing production of any documents or information, or from seeking further or different relief should future pretrial activities indicate such a need.

14. Client Consultation. Nothing in this Order shall bar or otherwise restrict any attorney herein from rendering advice to his or her client with respect to this case or from doing anything necessary to prosecute or defend this case and further the interests of his client, provided,

1 however, that the attorney shall not disclose any material designated for protection hereunder
2 where such disclosure would be contrary to the terms of this Order.

3 15. Discretion of the Court. Nothing in this Order shall apply to, bind, or limit the Court
4 or its employees in the performance of their duties. Notwithstanding any foregoing suggestion to 5 the contrary, the Court shall retain final and complete authority to re-designate any material
6 previously designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” as a public document.

7 16. Notice of Breach. It shall be the obligation of counsel, upon hearing of any breach
8 or threatened breach of this Order by any person, to promptly notify counsel for the opposing and 9 producing parties of such breach or threatened breach.

10 17. Litigation Use Only. All “CONFIDENTIAL” materials produced in this litigation, 11 whether by a party or nonparty, and all information contained therein or derived therefrom, shall 12 be used solely for the preparation and trial of this action (including any appeals and retrials), and 13 may not be used for any other purpose, including business, governmental or commercial, or any 14 other administrative or judicial proceedings or actions.

15 18. Subpoena by Other Court or Agencies. If another court or an administrative agency
16 subpoenas or orders production of “CONFIDENTIAL” materials that a party obtained under the 17 terms of this Order, the party receiving the subpoena shall promptly notify the party or other person
18 who designated the “CONFIDENTIAL” materials of the pendency of such subpoena or order.

19 19. Inadvertent Disclosure Protection. Review of the “CONFIDENTIAL” materials
20 labeled “CONFIDENTIAL” by counsel, experts, or consultants in the litigation shall not waive
21 the “CONFIDENTIAL” designation or any objections to production. “CONFIDENTIAL”
22 materials inadvertently produced by any party or nonparty through discovery in this action without 23 having been designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be subject to the provisions of this Order to 24 the same extent as if the inadvertent disclosure had not occurred so long as there is reasonable
25 notice to the other party of the inadvertent disclosure. If a producing party inadvertently discloses
26 to a receiving party information that is privileged or otherwise immune from discovery, said
27 producing party shall promptly, upon discovery of such disclosure, so advise the receiving party
28 in writing and request that the item or items of information be returned. No party to this action

1 shall thereafter assert that such disclosure waived any privilege or immunity. It is further agreed
2 that the receiving party will return such inadvertently produced item or items of information and
3 all copies thereof within fourteen (14) business days of receiving a written request for the return
4 of such item or items of information from the producing party.

5 20. Non-Parties. Non-parties who are required to produce “CONFIDENTIAL”
6 material in response to a subpoena, and who in good faith believe that such material contains 7 confidential information, may rely on this Order and apply it to their production.

8 21. Responsibility of Attorneys. The attorneys of record are responsible for employing 9 reasonable measures to control, consistent with this Order, the duplication of, access to, and 10 distribution of copies of materials labeled “CONFIDENTIAL.” Parties shall not duplicate any 11 such materials except for working copies and for filing in court under seal. The attorneys of record
12 further are responsible for employing reasonable measures to control, consistent with this Order,
13 the dissemination or revelation of confidential information.

14 IT IS SO ORDERED.
